NAPERVILLE, IL — Naper Settlement announces Howlin' at the Moon, a two-night Halloween festival for adults 21+ years old on October 22-23 from 5-10 p.m. Tickets are now on sale for the new event, which includes spine-chilling Halloween-themed shows, creepy exhibits, live music, food and beverages, and more. Guests are also encouraged to dress up in their best Halloween costumes.

Attractions will include fire dancers, a one-of-a-kind liquid light show, a contortionist and illusionist, a reptile and bug show, the Carnival of Curiosity and Chaos, and more. There will be a costume contest and Halloween-themed vendors in the Moonlight Market. A stroll around the museum's property will also reveal a Dark Art Gallery and Graveyard photo-op.

Both nights will include live music performances ranging from rock to country music. On October 22, OMT will take the stage at 5:30-7:30 p.m. to play a variety of rock, indie, and country music. Later in the night from 8-10 p.m., the 6-piece band Libido Funk Circus will put on a performance consisting of costume changes and unique musical medleys of disco, rock, pop, new wave, and more. On October 23, the multi-genre 4-piece band Here Nor There will perform from 5:30-7:30 p.m. From 8-10 p.m., Chicago's favorite jam band Mr. Blotto will play a mix of rock, country, and reggae covers as well as their own original music from their 7 studio albums.

"Howlin' at the Moon is an over-the-top experience of mystique, horror, and fun created just for adults," said Adison Glick, special events team leader at Naper Settlement. "We're excited for this event's inaugural year! Attendees will love being able to watch the fire dancers while listening to the music onstage. Be ready for hair-raising performances, wicked art, mouth-watering food at our Food Truck Graveyard, and drinks at our Booze Bar."

Howlin' at the Moon runs from 5-10 p.m. on October 22-23 and is for individuals 21 years of age and older. No one under the age of 21 is permitted. IDs will be checked at the entrance.
